Do you enjoy catering and motivating a team? Are you looking to further your career?

The Trust's Catering Manager is looking to recruit an experienced Assistant Chef, commercial or educational background, to assist in the day to day running of this catering kitchen. The Trust is in an exciting new phase and there is opportunity to grow the external catering service.

You will assist the team on a daily basis to prepare, cook and serve up to 300 meals to the students of St Dunstan's. In the future this role could grow as the catering facility at St Dunstans may deliver meals to local schools.

Meals are produced in accordance with the Food for Life Partnership Scheme and within the school's budget. You will report directly to the Midsomer Norton Schools' Partnership Catering Manager.

If you have proven experience of cheffing, apply today!

Available benefits are 33 days annual leave, local government pension scheme, sick pay scheme, cycle to work scheme and an Employee Assistance Freephone Helpline.
