EXTREME reading

The Challenge has been set!
Are you an Extreme Reader?

Tuesday 26th February 2019

Dear Parent/Carer,

Following the success of our extreme Reading challenge last year, we would like to invite you all to take the Midsomer Norton Extreme Reading Challenge as part of this year's celebration of World Book Day.

Where is the most extreme place your child has ever read a book? Think about different, exciting, fun and SAFE places you can enjoy a book. Whether it is up a tree, on top of a mountain or stood on their head, we want your photos!

Your challenge is to take a picture of your child reading somewhere extreme and send it in to school by Friday 22nd March 2019.

There will be a number of £5.00 Book tokens to be won for the most extreme places reading has taken place.

You can email your efforts to office@midsomernortonprimary.co.uk or bring the pictures into school. We will be displaying the most exciting and extreme pictures to celebrate reading.

Obviously, we encourage you to keep safe (I wouldn't recommend reading in the jaws of a crocodile!) but we are really looking forward to seeing who in school has such a passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere!

Many Thanks and good luck!

Mrs N Boyce
