February 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,

In addition to the information sent in the previous Book Week Letter, your child/children will be coming home with a sponsorship form for our optional Readathon. They can collect sponsorship money from family and friends for each page or book that is read. The money raised will be spent on new books for the children. Please could your children bring the money they have raised by Friday 8th March.

As well as this, over the half term holiday, we invite your children to enter an optional competition to decorate a pebble from a character or scene from a book. A prize will be given to the best/most creative entry in each year group.

On Thursday 7th March, 2:30 - 3:10 PM, you are invited in to see the brilliant work that the children have created throughout the week.

Please could I also remind you if you have not yet paid for the Natural Theatre Company workshop on Parentpay and returned the slip please do so.

Best wishes,

Cindy James

English Coordinator
