

Narrative Success Criteria Checklist

Feature	What I think	What my peer thinks	What my teacher thinks
Core
Does your story have a basic narrative plot and structure to it? (beginning, middle and end, with characters)
Have you used time words to help the reader follow the story?
Have you used adjectives to describe the settings and characters?
Have you used paragraphs accurately? (to express a change in person, place, time or topic)
Have you made progress towards your personal target?
Challenge
Have you used punctuation accurately?
Have you described the setting and atmosphere using descriptive language?
Have you used expanded noun phrases to add detail?
Have you used fronted adverbials? (time, manner, place)
Super Challenge
Have you included dialogue? (including using accurate speech punctuation)
Have you used show don't tell? Described feelings rather than labelled them			