Community Art Day 2023

We are delighted to tell you that last term the children worked their socks off and collected enough gems to earn a whole school reward. One of their choices was a whole school art morning. As we are working towards earning an Artsmark Award this will be a great opportunity to come together and create some wonderful art.

You are invited to join us to roll up your sleeves and get messy on Friday 31st March 2023 between 9:15-10:15 am.

We will be using these outcomes to enter the "Take one picture" project by The National Gallery. The picture this year is "Surprised!" by Henri Rousseau.

We will need newspapers, magazines and thick cardboard for this project. If you have any, please bring it to the office and we will store it ready for the day.

Many thanks,

Danielle Seymour
Art Co-ordinator
