Revision Website

It was lovely to see so many parents at our Information evening on Thursday 26th March. If you missed the event or would like any other information about the preparation for GCSEs I would strongly encourage you to revisit our webpage: "Year 11 - Exam Information and Support" under the " Information for Students and Parents/Carers" section of our website.

Power Hour

I thank you all for your support insisting that your child attend all of the Power Hour sessions open to them. The sessions will continue to run after the Easter holidays until Thursday 7th May. After this point in time subjects will still be running sessions, although the timetable will be designed around the next scheduled examination. If your child cannot attend a power hour session, please contact the school using this email address: secretary@stdunstans.mnsp.org.uk

Other key dates

French Speaking Exams: 28th & 29th April

Art Exam: 30th April & 1st May

Exam Contingency Day: Wednesday 24th June

100% attendance is absolutely essential to student success during this time.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. T Armstrong

Assistant Headteacher
