

Welcome Back - News from our Classes

It has been wonderful to welcome the children back to school this week. In Tuesday's assembly, we talked about how 'working hard' is one of our school's golden rules, and so many children across the school have been going the extra mile this week with lots of visitors to the office to show their excellent work. We have seen some great writing from Turtle Class, and they have been taking advantage of the cold weather and have explored cold places, learning about animals that live there. They also planned and set up ice investigations. Shark Class have started learning about the concept of multiplication and enjoyed building paper aeroplanes just like the main character in their class book. Seal Class enjoyed their first swimming session on Tuesday and have been learning about desktop publishing in ICT. Dolphin Class have started learning about mountains and how they are made as well as looking at playground design in DT.

Small Schools Athletics Tournament

On Tuesday after school, we took a small team to Wellsway School for an indoor athletics competition. They did brilliantly, giving every event their fullest effort and were extremely supportive of one another, both through encouragement and making sure they all felt confident with the activities they were doing. Well done to the boys team: Reuben B, Toby, Charlie, Harry, Ruben D. and particularly Albie L who stepped in to help with our team numbers. Also a special well done to Tabby and Olivia who had to work extra hard as the only girls on our team!

Papaya Talk - Helping Families Thrive in the Digital Age

Thank you very much to all the families who responded to the requests for information about the best time and method for a parent information session on 'empowering parents with practical insights and expert guidance to support children's wellbeing in a digital world.' We are pleased to say that the session for parents will be held online on Monday 26th January at 7pm as this was the most popular option. It will be a very useful and informative session and we would encourage as many parents, carers and interested relatives to attend as possible. Further information and the link for the session can be found here, and we will send out reminders nearer the time. There will also be Key Stage 2 workshops run by Papaya in school the previous week.

Thought of the Week

'When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.' (Matthew 2:10-11)

Visit Of The Three Wise Men - Jesus Mafa (1973)

The gifts all held significance though and as people who studied the stars and read about prophecies from different ancient cultures, they would have known about a promised Messiah after studying the Old Testament texts.

Although Christmas is finished, early January is the traditional time when Epiphany is celebrated. In many countries around the world, the three magi or kings are remembered and people celebrate how a star led them to Jesus. 'Epiphany' comes from the Greek word 'to reveal' as it is seen as the time that Jesus was revealed to the world. Children often receive gifts during Epiphany to remind them of the gifts the wise men gave Jesus.

But what of those gifts? They seem a bit unusual, don't they? Not the sorts of gifts you'd give a child.

The Adoration Of The Kings - Zanobi Strozzi (1433-34)

The Adoration Of The Magi - James Tissot (1886-94)

Gold was one of the gifts. I suppose at least Mary and Joseph could have sold it to buy things they actually needed!

But giving Jesus gold was referring to him as the promised king.

Frankincense was an oil that was even more precious than gold. This oil could be made into a perfume which was said to have 'a heavenly scent' or a 'divine aroma'. This was meant to signify that Jesus was coming as a holy leader, or priest, guiding people towards God. It could have also meant that he was God himself.

Finally myrrh. This was said to have medicinal properties, but it could also be used to create an exquisite perfume. Myrrh, though, was used most commonly to anoint the dead. These wise men would have read the prophecies explaining that this promised messiah, king, priest and Son of God would also become a sacrifice, to take the punishment in place of everyday people.

This is why for Christians all over the world, the visit of the magi is so significant, because they gave gifts that explained so clearly who Jesus was and what he came to do.
