

This week has been all about the Year 6s. Firstly, they absolutely smashed their SATS with results exceeding targets. They all put in so much hard work in preparation for these (Mr Rideout included!) and just goes to show that hard work and dedication really does pay off. We know that they will all be delighted with their scores and this sets them up really well for their secondary schools in September.

On Wednesday and Thursday, the Year 6 performed their production of Aladdin. Again, the Year 6s were absolutely wonderful, a really enjoyable evening. A massive thank you to Anna Shaw for producing and directing the show, Mrs Willcox who yet again put her artistic skills to good use to make all the scenery and props and to Miss Hodgkinson and the choir for supporting.

Year 3 trip to Park Row Synagogue

On Tuesday morning it was an absolute pleasure to accompany Rowan Class to Park Row Synagogue in Bristol. We were given a warm welcome from our guide Janet who commented about how beautifully behaved the children were. The children were a credit to the school and listened beautifully as they learned about Jewish, worship, beliefs and festivals before taking a tour of the beautiful Synagogue. They all stood on the Bimah (the raised platform from which the services are led by the Rabbi) and had a close look at the beautiful Torah scroll. Despite the fact that they couldn't read the Hebrew language they admired the scroll and listened to our guide, Janet sing a verse from the Torah. They also had the opportunity to see the other very special Torah scrolls which are kept in the ark. The children answered a lot of questions and hopefully the experience has given them a deeper understanding of what it is like to be Jewish in Bristol.
