

Welcome to an action packed but rather soggy start to Term 4. From sporting events and World Book Day to class trips, the Year 6 residential, sporting events, the Bulb Show and the Easter Olympics to name but a few will be taking place over the coming weeks. We look forward to sharing photos as each event occurs.

We have some new faces in school. Amelia Bissex, a former pupil, started on Monday as our Teaching Assistant apprentice and we welcomed 3 new PGCE teaching students - Ms Brady in Cherry Class, Mr Morgan in Maple Class and Miss Simms in Sycamore Class who will be with us until June.

On Monday we welcomed the horticultural society who came to talk to the children about the bulb show (details of which are towards the end of this newsletter) and yesterday Tim Parker, a singing coach from the BANES music service came to work with Maple and Willow Class teaching them songs ready for their big 'Hear My Voice' singing festival in Bath on Monday March 18th.

Parents of children in Maple and Willow - We only found out on Tuesday that we had secured a place at this sought after event so details will be shared with you as soon as possible. As the festival does not finish until 3pm we will not be arriving back at school until approximately 3.45 on this day. We are currently trying to secure a coach to take us to and from the event.

A plea from The Eco Team

If you have lots of recycling at home, can children bring no more than one carrier bag of cardboard or plastic items into school by Thursday 29th February. It will be used for a school junk modelling session that will take place as part of our Shut Down Day on Friday 1st March.

HOUSE TREAT - RUBY

As winners of the House cup last term, Ruby house captains have decided that they would like another non-uniform day as their treat. This will be on Thursday 29th February (next Thursday!)

Huge congratulations to Rocco for raising a fantastic £850 for The Little Princess Trust!!! He donated 15 inches of hair to the charity. Rocco and his mum would like to say a big thank you to everyone that supported him with donations.

MULTI SPORTS CLUB

There are still spaces for the multi sports club which runs on Thursdays 3.15-4.15. Click on the link to sign up. PH Sports Online Bookings
