This week at Nursery . . .

We have been embracing the autumn season with trips out to collect fallen leaves, children have been observing their changing colours and talking about what they see. We have been doing 'Hedgehog counting' throwing the dice, recognising the amount and then counting the pegs to clip on to the hedgehog to resemble it's spines. There has been pattern making in the canopy using conkers and acorns to make a repeating pattern. And there have also been some lovely painted prints made with leaves.
