CHRISTIAN VALUE OF THE TERM: WISDOM

Message from the Headteacher

It has been another vibrant week of discovery at St John's. In Reception, our youngest writers have been busy bringing characters to life! They have started drafting their own character descriptions for Little Red Riding Hood. It is wonderful to see them using their phonics skills to describe the "Big Bad Wolf" and the "kind Grandma" with such growing confidence.

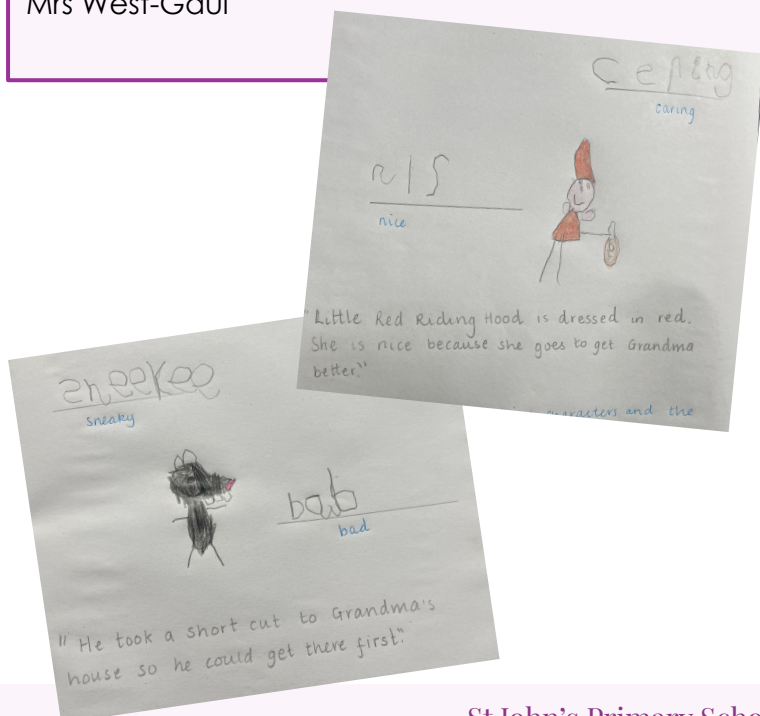

There is a real buzz of determination in Year 4 as the children continue to master their times tables. I have been incredibly impressed by their resilience; many are working hard to beat their own personal best scores, showing that practice and a positive mindset really do pay off.

Year 6 have embarked on a powerful new History topic: The Second World War. A particular highlight this week was seeing the children share their own family histories. Many brought in fascinating artifacts and stories from home, which truly helped bring the past to life. This historical immersion has even extended to their Music lessons, where they have begun learning the iconic songs that kept spirits high during the 1940s.

Thank you to all the families who supported the Year 6 project by sharing your personal treasures and stories - it makes the curriculum so much more meaningful for the children.

I wish you all a restful and happy weekend.

Mrs West-Gaul

Reading in Next Steps Nursery

This week at Next Steps Nursery the children have enjoyed learning all about pirates. After showing an interest in making treasure maps, we have continued this theme and they have joined in with some pirate activities.

We have shared the story 'Pi-Rat'; A swashbuckling adventure of two young pirates who sail the seven seas at bath time.

We continued the theme during this week's Forest School and had a pirate treasure hunt. The children searched for clues (including parrot feathers, bones and pirate hats), before taking on the tricky challenge of 'walking the plank'. They bravely balanced on a large tree trunk, and jumped off the end to splash into the 'murky waters' below!

Thought of the Week

Thought of the Week

'Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.' (Matthew 6:34)

'Worry does not empty tomorrow of its sorrow. It empties today of its strength.'

- Corrie Ten Boom

FUTURELIFENOW-ONLINE.COM

The quote on the left is from Corrie Ten Boom. She was a Dutch watchmaker and later a Christian writer and public speaker. She worked with her father Casper, her sister Betsie and other family members to help many Jewish people escape from the Nazis during World War II, by hiding them in her home.

Unfortunately, they were caught, and Corrie was arrested and sent to the Ravensbrück concentration camp. Her most famous book, 'The Hiding Place', is a biography that recounts the story of her family's efforts and how she found and shared hope in God while she was imprisoned at the concentration camp.

After the war, Corrie returned to the Netherlands to set up a rehabilitation centre in Bloemendaal. She then returned to Germany in 1946 and met with and forgave two Germans who had been employed at Ravensbrück, one of whom had been particularly cruel to Betsie, her sister. Corrie lost her father while they were held in prison and her sister while in the concentration camp.

It's quite surprising that after everything she went through, she was able to talk about not worrying. For someone who had to endure existing in a concentration camp, which included watching her father and sister die and spending time in solitary confinement, it's amazing that she could even think about enjoying 'today' and not worrying about the next.

It's easy to find something to worry about, maybe even more so at the current time. But as Jesus says in Matthew's gospel, don't worry about tomorrow, focus on today. That doesn't mean we need to start worrying about the here and now, but like Corrie Ten Boom says, focusing on tomorrow and the next day, just stops you enjoying the moment. It empties you of today's strength.

So before you start worrying about next month's bills, or next week's appointments or even tomorrow's meals, take some time to enjoy today and to live in the moment. Don't let future worries stop you from finding today's joys.

Do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.
